LaRue County Herald, May 30, 1901

Mrs. Florence Hutcherson, wife of Rev. J. B. Hutcherson, and daughter of Mrs. & Mrs. William Catlett, died of a complication of diseases, at her home on South Fork, Sunday, May 26, 1901. The following day the funeral was conducted by the writer of this and the pastor, Rev. W. T. Parrish, in the presence of a large congregation of sympathetic relatives and friends. The deceased was born February 29, 1872, and was married to Rev. J. B. Hutcherson December 19, 1888, professed religion in August, 1890, and joined the South Fork Baptist Church of which she remained a consistent member until her death. She leaves to mourn their loss a husband, 3 little children, a mother, several members of her mother's family and a host of relatives and friends. Her character stands out beyond reproach. She was a real mother and companion, filling the important sphere of the true woman with devotion and tenderness. Having been her pastor for 9 years, I here give my testimony to her Christian worth and character. I never heard anyone speak an unkind word of her. No greater compliment need be paid to her Christian worth than the large congregation at her funeral and burial. May the Lord strengthen and comfort the sorrowing companion, and prepare him for ever greater work in the vineyard, and may the eye of Providence keep watch over the motherless children, and may God bless them all, is my prayer.

The South Fork community was saddened by the sudden death of Simeon Jones last Wednesday. While he had been a sufferer of hay fever for years, his sudden death was a shock to all. He was born November 1, 1884, the son of E. L. and Eliza Jane Jones. On November 2, 1905, he was married to Mattie Keith and to this union were born 2 sons and 2 daughters; Ella Ree, Louis, Edward and Mary Margaret, all of Buffalo. They, with his aged father, survive him. His mother preceded him in death just 4 months. All during his Christian life he proved himself a worthy Christian, an active church member; always interested in all the work of the church and religious affairs generally. He was a most devoted and faithful husband and father and a splendid citizen and neighbor to all, with a deep interest in the welfare and progress of his community, his county and state. Burial in South Fork Cemetery.

KILLED IN FALL FROM BRIDGE

BIVEN KEITH LIVES ONLY SHORT WHILE AFTER THE ACCIDENT

The funeral of Biven Keith, who was killed by a fall from a bridge near Kosmodale, Monday, was held yesterday afternoon at South Fork Church in the presence of a number of relatives and friends of the deceased. The remains were brought here on the morning train. The deceased was a son of the late William and Molly Keith of this county and was well known. Numerous near relatives in the county survive, besides 3 sisters and 3 brothers who live in various parts of the county. The following account of his death was taken from Monday evening's Louisville Times: "Biven Keith, 32 years of age, a bridge workman employed by T. B. Miller & Sons, contractors, at Meadow Lawn, was killed in a fall of 8 feet from the railing to the floor of the bridge over Pond Creek this morning, dying while on a train on the way to Louisville. He lost his balance just after cutting a wire that supported a timber of the false work of the new bridge, which is located at the Jefferson County line, between Stites Station and Kosmosdale. Coroner Ellis Duncan will hold an inquest in the case. Keith was formerly of Hodgenville, Kentucky and had been employed by Miller & Sons for a year. He was unmarried.

Mr. Jediah (Jeremiah ?) Keith, one of South Fork's oldest and most highly respected citizens, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Mollie Keith, in Louisville, on last Friday, of bronchitis, aged 83 years. Mr. Keith, though far advanced in years, had enjoyed good health and was on a pleasure visit to the city when he was stricken. The remains were conveyed to this place on Saturday morning and taken to the home of his son, Mr. William Keith, of South Fork. On Sunday following brief funeral services the body was laid to rest in the South Fork burying ground. Mr. Keith is survived by 2 sons and 3 daughters. They are Thomas Keith of Oklahoma; William Keith of South Fork; Mrs. Charles Friend of Kansas; Mrs. Mollie Keith of Louisville; Mrs. Andy Thurman of Parker's Grove. Mr. Keith had been one of the county's best farmers for many years, but in the past few years and after the death of his wife, he retired from active work and gave up the management of his farm. The latter part of his life had been spent with his children, the greater portion of the time with his son, Mr. William Keith.

Larue County Herald, April 30, 1914

Buffalo, Ky. – Mr. J. H. Lewis, well known as "Uncle Josh", died at the home of Mr. & Mrs. J. H. McLain last Monday. Mr. Lewis has for several past years been in a bad state of health. For the past several weeks he has been declining rapidly and for some days past his death had been hourly expected. He had boarded with Mr. & Mrs. McLain for quite a while and in all his feeble condition and delicate state of health was cared for as tenderly and carefully as if he had been a father by Mrs. McLain and family. His son "Woodie" has the praise of everyone because of the manner in which he had his father cared for. He certainly had been a faithful and worthy son. Mr. Lewis was 71 years and some days old at the time of his death. His wife preceded him in death several years past. The deceased leaves 4 surviving children, Mrs. Leslie Gum of Hart County, Mr. Melvin Lewis of near Upton, Mr. David Lewis of Green County, Mr. W. J. Lewis, "Woodie" of this place. There is also 1 surviving brother, Mr. Wash Lewis of Green County. Funeral services and interment took place at South Fork Tuesday. Mr. Lewis had for many years been a member of the Baptist church holding his membership at Old Brush Creek Church. Mr. Lewis was a nice gentleman and was held at high respect by all who know him. The writer and many other friends extend sympathy to the bereft family.

The angel of death visited the home of Mr. J. H. Lewis and claimed for its victim his beloved wife, Nancy Lewis. She was born September 16, 1844, and died June 10, 1911. The deceased was Miss Nancy Ann Scott before her marriage. She professed faith in Christ at the age of 14 and united with the Baptist church. She lived a consistent Christian life until her death. She was married to J. H. Lewis in 1862 and their union was blessed with 8 children. She leaves to mourn her death her husband, 1 daughter, Mrs. Leslie Gum; 3 sons, David, Milton and Woody. It is hard to give up loved ones but God, in His almighty wisdom, sees best to take them away, not thou weary one, but prepare to meet the departed in Heaven. Funeral services were conducted by the pastor, Rev. W. T. Parrish, and the remains were laid to rest in South Fork Church Cemetery.
