Jesse R. T. Thomas

LaRue County Herald, January 10, 1901

Wedding bells rang with a merry jingle at Tonieville yesterday morning and Cupid danced with delight over the double success of his efforts. A double wedding occurred at the home of Rev. W. J. Puckett and when the few well-chosen words of the minister had been uttered Hymen had linked for all time the destinies of 4 of the most popular young people of our county. The contracting parties were Mr. Charles Corum and Miss Nannie Thomas, and Mrs. Will W. Thomas and Miss Gillie Highbaugh. Mr. Corum is the son of Mr. James Corum, of the Barren Run neighborhood, and his bride is the daughter of Mr. H. W. Thomas, of Buffalo. Mr. Thomas is a son of Mr. H. W. Thomas and his bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. R. Highbaugh, both deceased, and is a niece of Mrs. William Leming, of this place.

LaRue County Herald, July 17, 1941

William Thomas, age 62 years, son of the late Henry and Adeline Mitchell Thomas, who was born and reared in the South Fork section, died in a Louisville hospital Wednesday morning of plural pneumonia. Mr. Thomas, who was in the employ of the K & I Railroad over a long period of years, had been almost a helpless invalid from rheumatism for several years. His wife, Mrs. Gillie Highbaugh Thomas, preceded him in death. Survivors are 1 son, Jesse Thomas, of Buffalo; 6 sisters, Mrs. W. E. Polley and Mrs. Claude Bennett both of LaRue County; Mrs. C. P. Corum, Mrs. Maude Lamkin, Mrs. Monta Wilton, and Mrs. Ella Parker of Louisville; 1 brother, Bomar Thomas of LaRue County. Interment in South Fork Cemetery.

The birth and death dates are different on the older and newer stones. His obituary was in the newspaper on July 17th so the death date can't be right on the newer stone.

Larue County Herald, May 18, 1911

An unusually sad death was that of Mrs. Richard VanCleave, which occurred Monday afternoon at her home near Hodgenville as a result of child birth. Mrs. VanCleave's illness was of short duration, and her death came as a severe shock to her devoted husband, little son, mother and other relatives and friends. The deceased was a most estimable woman, a member of the South Fork Baptist Church and a most devoted Christian. Her maiden name was Miller, and she was well known in Hodgenville, where she resided with her mother and sister a number of years ago. Mrs. VanCleave was born in Larue County July 24, 1886, and had spent her life here. She is survived by her husband and 1 child, and by her mother, Mrs. Emma Rock, and by 1 sister. To the sorrowing ones, The Herald, together with many friends of the family, extends sincere sympathy. The deceased was married to Mr. VanCleave a number of years ago, and their married life has been one of devotion to each other. She was dutiful and kind and loving toward her husband and her devotion for her little boy was beautiful. After funeral services the body was laid to rest in the South Fork burying ground Thursday afternoon.

Larue County Herald, October 19, 1916

On last Saturday at noon Mrs. Nettie Thomas Vass, was brought from Louisville, her home, and buried at South Fork. Funeral services were conducted by the pastor, Rev. W. T. Parish. She was born November 19, 1890, professed faith in Christ at Barren Run, later joined Bacon Creek Church. Was married to Mr. Joe Vass on July 15, 1912, to which union was born 1 child, a sweet little girl, who will miss mother. She also leaves a father, 6 sisters, 2 brothers, her mother having died just about 2 months ago, and was buried at the same place. Miss Nettie had many friends in this community, having once lived here and taught school at this place. We deeply regret her death so early in life but realize that God knows best. God does not try us beyond our strength neither do we have a certain time in which to fill our mission here on earth.

The remains of Mrs. Joe Vass, of Louisville, were brought to Hodgenville and taken to South Fork and interred in the cemetery there. The deceased was formerly a Miss Nettie Thomas, a daughter of Mr. Henry Thomas, of the county, and was at one time a teacher in the public schools in the county. Her mother died only a few weeks ago. Mrs. Vass had been in ill health for some time and her death was not unexpected. Besides her husband she is survived by her father and several sisters.

Larue County Herald, September 13, 1928

Mr. Fielding Walters died at his home at Buffalo Firday, after an illness of about a weeks duration at the age of 75 years. Mr. Walters had been twice married, his first wife, Mrs. Mary Wimpsett Walters having died many years ago. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Sallie Cheshire Walters, and 2 daughters, Mesdames Will Boyd and Granville Hall, of Magnolia. For a long while Mr. Walters was one of the best known farmers in the Magnolia section, but owing to failing health he gave up farming and moved to Buffalo some years ago. Burial was in South Fork Cemetery.
